Bruce Williamson

Art Lande

Paul McCandless

Trio BAP (Bruce, Art, Paul) is a group that straddles the definitions of modern Jazz and 21st century chamber music. The variety in the orchestration (Paul McCandless playing soprano sax, oboe, English horn, bass clarinet, Bruce Williamson playing alto and soprano saxophones, flute, clarinet, bass clarinet) makes this a mini orchestra when combined with Art Lande's piano.

The seamless connection between composition and improvisation and the flexibility of precision and freedom takes the listener on a wide ranging journey.

After nearly 40 years of playing together in many bands dating back to Rubisa Patrol, the blend, communication, and energy that the band exudes is a potent cocktail of beauty, spontaneity, and pure joy.
